In the first series of the night, Charlevoix outscored Boyne City 42-15.

The Vikings battled the Rayders in the second match of the meet. Grayling won 69-12, posting a 5-2 record in contested matches.

In the final series of the night, Grayling jumped out to a sizeable lead vs. Boyne City and won by 73 points. The match included only five contested bouts and Grayling won all of them. 11A

Vikings win with strong 2nd half at East Jordan

The first half of last Friday's Grayling vs. East Jordan varsity boys basketball game looked like a battle between two similar, evenly matched teams. The Vikings, however, controlled the second half, outscoring the Red Devils 42-22 in the final 16 minutes of the contest.

Friday's match, played at East Jordan High School, was the first Lake Michigan Conference game of the season for both squads.

The teams were tied at 24-24 after a low-scoring first half. The Vikings outscored the Red Devils by 20 points — 10 in each period — in the second half to win by a final score of 66-46. 15A

Grayling down two police officers

City to study possible replacement of one or both

by Dan Sanderson

Staff Writer

The City of Grayling will be down two police officers due to the retirement of a veteran patrolman and the resignation of another officer moving up the career ladder.

The Grayling City Police Department had to find a way to fill two slots on its roster due the resignations of two officers, which became effective last weekend.

Dennis Long, who has worked as a patrolman for 25 years for the Grayling Police Department, retired effective Friday, Dec. 18.

Mark Jacobi, who joined the Grayling Police Department in March, resigned effective Sunday, Dec. 20. He is taking a position as a deputy with the Crawford County Sheriff's Office.

Grayling City Manager David Thayer said remaining Officers Al Somero and Tim Coe would be working 2 a.m. to 2 p.m. shifts to cover a majority of hours. Grayling Police Chief Doug Baum would patrol the city during other peak travel time hours, Thayer said.

The city will study replacing one if not both officers as officials review budgets in January, Thayer said.

Thayer said the earliest the department would have the officers trained and on duty by themselves would be in March.

"I think that's a very aggressive expectation with that," Thayer said.

Thayer predicts that the city will receive $29,000 less in revenue sharing funds from the state and $40,000 less in property tax revenues.

The city will be going over its budgets with a fine-toothed comb in January as state budget planners review revenues that the state brought in 2009.

Thayer told the Grayling City Council last week that the future does not look good as far as receiving funding from the state in 2010 and in future years.

"It's early, it's an election year and there is a lot up for grabs, but I don't see a lot of compromise," Thayer said of state lawmakers in Lansing.

County receives housing grant

by Dan Sanderson

Staff Writer

Over a half million dollars will be poured into a Grayling neighborhood to upgrade infrastructure and housing.

The Crawford County Board of Commissioners approved a $243,900 Community Development Block Grant from the Michigan State Housing Development Authority's Office of Community Development last week.

The funds will be used for emergency repairs and the rehabilitation of at least 12 owner-occupied homes in the City of Grayling.

Cy Wakeley, director of the Crawford County Housing Commission, said he applied for the grant in August after learning that the City of Grayling was getting a separate $388,284 Community Development Block Grant through the Michigan Economic Development Corporation.

The funds will be used to replace infrastructure on Ingham Street, which runs from the I-75 Business Loop to Maple Street adjacent to the the Old AuSable Fly Shop.

Grayling City Manager David Thayer said that sewer mains will be replaced, water lines will be replaced and sanitary sewers will be replaced. The project will also enable the city to have the required 10 feet of lateral and vertical space between the water, sanitary and storm sewers. Finally, the road will be repaved and new curbs will be built.

Wakeley said investment in that particular neighborhood in Grayling allowed the Crawford County Housing Commission to See COUNTY | 5A

CONSTRUCTION CARRIES OVER TO THE NEW YEAR

by Dan Sanderson

Staff Writer

With the Christmas tree, decorated light poles and large equipment, the front of the Crawford County building could be compared to family's living room on Christmas morning.

But Crawford County officials and citizens will have to wait until after the New Year before they are delivered the final building addition and renovations due to construction delays for the project.

Crawford County Administrator Paul Compo said that the county expects to be delivered a certificate of occupancy for the building addition on Monday, Jan. 11. County officials, engineers and building contractors will go through a final punch list to determine if everything in the building has been done properly on Wednesday, Jan. 20.

Ripke Construction Co. Inc. of St. Helen was expected to have the building completed by mid-November. Contractors, however, ran into several issues including huge chunks of cement that were underground, replacing a gas line and waterline during excavating work.

"Once they started digging, they ran into all kinds of things," Compo said.

The firm, which was awarded over $1.1 million for the project, was given an extension until mid-December. But since that deadline has already gone and gone, county officials are waiting until after the New Year for construction to be wrapped up. Ceilings where the former rest rooms were located in the building still need to be replaced

The Grayling Police Department held a retirement reception for Officer Dennis Long on Friday. ## City council adopts rules for outdoor wood stoves

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

A month after passing a temporary moratorium on permitting outdoor wood burning stoves in Grayling, city officials have approved regulations recommended by the industry to allow the stoves to be used.

The Grayling City Council, at its regular monthly meeting last week, adopted an ordinance regulating wood burning stoves in the community.

Grayling City Manager David Thayer told the city council that within 24 hours after an article was published in the Crawford County Avalanche regarding the moratorium, an industry representative contacted him and sent a model ordinance for outdoor wood stoves.

Thayer said the ordinance recommended by the outdoor wood stove manufacturers was far more stringent than what city and fire department officials were considering.

Thayer said that city and manufacturers have the same vested interest as the industry, which is to have the outdoor stoves with up-to-date technology that addresses safety and efficiency.

The ordinance addresses:

- EPA Hyrdonic Heater Phase One outdoor stoves, which have a particulate emission limit of .60 pounds per million British Thermal Units.

- EPA Hyrdonic Heater Phase One qualified models.
- EPA Hyrdonic Heater Phase Two, which have a particulate emission limit of .32 pounds per million British Thermal Units.

- EPA Hyrdonic Heater Phase Two qualified model.

The setback for EPA Hyrdonic Heater Phase One qualified models must be located at least 25 feet from the property line and shall be located within 100 feet from any residence or business that is not served by the outdoor wood furnace.

ness that is not served by the outdoor wood furnace.

A EPA Hyrdonic Heater Phase Two program qualified heater must be located on the property in compliance with manufacture's recommendation and shall be at least 50 feet from any residence of business not served by the outdoor wood furnace.

Outdoor Wood furnaces that are not EPA Hyrdonic Heater Phase One qualified must be 50 feet from the property line and 100 feet away from any residence or business not served by the outdoor wood furnace.

Chimneys must be two feet higher than the peak of the home or business served by the outdoor wood furnace or a neighboring home or business not served by the wood furnace.

Thayer said that stabilizing the chimneys is an issue that outdoor wood stove manufacturers still have to deal with.

Only natural, untreated wood, wood pellets, corn products, biomass pellets can be used in the wood stoves.

The burning of newspapers, tires, plastic materials, rubbish or garbage and wood that has been painted, varnished or contains resins or glue is strictly prohibited.

A person who has an existing outdoor wood furnace must operate the furnace within the manufacturer's specifications and must comply with the city's ordinance regarding fuel that may be burned in an outdoor wood furnace.

Thayer said that very few communities have adopted ordinances regulating outdoor wood stoves, adding that Grayling will serve as test site for the zoning regulations.

"The majority of cities are just outright banning them - period," he said. "They're not even having the discussion."

City changes status of tax assessor

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

The Grayling City Council last week agreed to hire its tax assessor as a part-time employee to comply with Uncle Sam's regulations.

Grayling City Manager David Thayer said that a recent U.S. Federal Court of Appeals decision mandated that all tax assessors who sign the tax rolls for municipalities must be an employee of the municipality.

The city council, last week, agreed to hire tax assessor Christie Verlac as a city employee to comply with Internal Revenue Service regulations.

"We've operated, like the vast majorities of communities, with a tax assessor as an independent contractor," Thayer said. "The Michigan Municipal League attorney said I don't know if you could win, but it would very costly to take them on, so you might as well go along with what the IRS has said and comply with it."

Thayer said that Verlac's salary was reduced by nine percent since the city will assume the duty to take out Social Security tax and Workman's Compensation coverage on her behalf. He added that Verlac, who was hired by former Grayling

City Manager Allen Lowe, was given 3.5 percent annual pay raises in the contracts to bring her up to salaries of assessors working in the market. Under the employee contract with the city, Thayer said the pay increase has been reduced to two-percent.

"All other things are pretty much consistent with what was determined to be status quo," Thayer said.

Verlac will be considered as an at-will employee, meaning the city could terminate her employment at any time without a cause for dismissal.

Thayer, however, said Grayling City Attorney Gerald Brabant recommended adding a 90-clause to the contract so that Verlac would have to inform the city she was intending to leave her job. Thayer said that would protect the city at certain times of years when tax assessments were being done and the tax rolls were being prepared.

"Certain times of year, if the assessor would leave, it would really leave us high and dry," Thayer said. "If we had the 90 days, we would have 90 days that we knew we had to get busy and try to find a replacement."

Correction

In an article, which ran in the Dec. 17 edition of the Avalanche, titled "Feeny assumes ownership of Ford-Mercury dealership," a sentence incorrectly said the dealership will eventually offer repair service and quick lube service when it is running at full capacity. The service department and quick lube have been in operation since Feeny took over ownership and management of the dealership on Dec. 1. The sentence should have said the dealership will eventually offer repair service and quick lube service on Saturday when it is running at full capacity. The Avalanche apologizes for the error.

Almanack

by Richard Milliman

Christmas time filled with 'wonders'

(Note: The following Christmas time essay first appeared in The Almanack several years ago, and is repeated this year because it seems just as appropriate now.)

CHRISTMAS TIME properly is filled with wonders.

There's the beauty of small children, with eyes and hearts filled with wonder and awe as they eagerly await Christmas morning and the visit from Santa Claus, wondering what his bulging bag of presents holds for them.

Worried shoppers scurry from store to store, wondering where they can find all the special things they seek to complete their Christmas shopping lists.

Frazzled wives and mothers and grandmothers – and sometimes their male counterparts, too – spend hours in the kitchen, producing their own wonders of food delights. Special Christmas cookies and pastries and dinners and other recipes are handed down from earlier generations, and always seem to turn out just great because everything tastes especially delicious during the holidays.

Especially during this year of economic uncertainties, there are the furrowed brows of the wage earners and bill payers, who wonder how they are ever going to be able to pay the bills for all the wonders of Christmas.

BEFITTING THE SEASON, I have a few special wonders, too.

I wonder why thousands of otherwise normal individuals haul themselves out of bed early on the morning after Thanksgiving to camp out at stores and malls, and fight and scratch their way inside the stores to throw their money at so-called bargains ... and then continue the spending frenzy at near the same pace for another month.

I wonder why everybody must have a Christmas list. I wonder why we buy gifts mostly from these mandatory lists, instead of looking for a special, individualized present that shows some originality and proves you really are thinking of the person who receives it.

I wonder why we expect to receive everything on that Christmas list, and why we're disappointed if we don't. Once we compile a list we seem to think we're entitled to everything on it, that it's our right to receive all or at least most of the gifts.

I wonder why parents and grandparents buy so much stuff for their kids anyway. Many cannot really afford it, but that's what the kids had on their lists, so that's what they buy.

I wonder why we have turned Christmas, an essentially one-day religious observance, into the overly commercialized, materialized and secularized event it has become.

CHRISTMAS IS a religious holiday, despite consistent attempts to make it otherwise.

Christmas is the Christian observance of the birth of Jesus Christ, and along with the Easter commemoration of His death and resurrection into heaven, the very foundation of the Christian faith.

I wonder why so many people accept the separation of Christmas from the birth of Jesus and the centuries of religious history stemming from it. That's not logical.

Now we substitute non-religious generic terms and practices for the real thing. We send holiday cards, not Christmas cards. We shout "Happy Holidays!" instead of "Merry Christmas!"

Public schools stage "Winterfest Programs," not Christmas programs, where children don't sing about the Baby Jesus or the manger at Bethlehem or the angels heralding the birth of Christ. Instead about the closest thing to Christmas we hear is the modern carol about roasting chestnuts on an open fire. I wonder why we accept and encourage this deterioration.

No one can prove the details of the birth of Jesus. It's all a matter of faith. According to some church historians, during the Fourth Century church leaders settled on December 25 to celebrate the birth of Jesus. That date probably was chosen to replace a pagan feast to the sun, observed in late December when days grow longer and the sun seems to be reborn each year.

Now, 17 centuries later, we still embrace December 25 as Christmas – sort of.

But more and more, just as the pagan sun worshipers did centuries ago, we tend to accept Christmas as a holiday, not a holy day. There is a difference.

BEFORE THIS essay turns completely into a script for Scrooge, I welcome and salute many good and excellent things that stand out about today's Christmas.

It's a time for family gatherings. It's a time to greet friends and loved ones. It's a time to care about others and to exchange gifts. It's a time to laugh and be happy and to sing songs, many with a religious nature, incidentally. These are all good things.

To be friendly and happy is good. To help others – by donating to organizations that help the needy and the homeless, by feeding the hungry and the lonely, by giving toys and clothes to needy families ... these are all good, too.

But without the religious foundation, without the connection to the birth of Jesus, it's simply a time of year, publicly accepted as a holiday, but not as a holy day.

Christmas and the birth of Jesus are hand in hand and should not – indeed, cannot – be separated. He is the reason for the season.

To all of you, a blessed and joyous Christmas from The Almanack.

Letters to the Editor

Keeping the four-way light is a terrible idea

To the editor:

I read in today's paper (Dec. 17) that we will keep the four-way light at Michigan and Maple.

Being a resident on Maple Street, I think this is a terrible idea.

Who is going to clean up the trash that drivers throw out the window while they are waiting for the light?

Who is going to monitor the speeders who fly up the hill from Penrods so they can make the light while it's still green?

Who is going to assure safe crossing at Ionia and Maple for our kids walking to the library after school and during the summer?

Who is going to keep drivers from driving in the bike path for a right hand turn onto Michigan off Maple?

Who is going to pay for the repairs to Maple Street for the smoother flow of traffic from people coming in from North Down River Road, traveling on Michigan Avenue and turning on Maple Street to access the southbound I-75 exit?

Can our downtown businesses afford to have that traffic routed down Maple Street? Can State Street at the business loop (by Burger King) handle the flow of traffic wanting to turn left towards the I-75 exit?

How many fender benders occurred last summer at this light? I can recall seeing several parked in driveways while they finished their business with the police. Is that fair to the property owners?

Take a look at the bigger picture, another traffic light to wait through, proposing a traffic light at the business loop bridge ... another reason to bypass Grayling altogether, who wants to get hung up in four traffic lights in a two-mile stretch?

Traffic was consistently backed up on the business loop during the summer to begin with, the redesign certainly won't make that any better. The picture I see gets bleaker and bleaker.

Show the same respect to others that you would like shown to you

To the editor:

I am writing this letter in regards to the "not so courteous" shoppers in Grayling or any other town, as far as that goes.

I am referring to the people who can't be bothered to take care of their carts, but instead leave them sitting in the parking lot after they've put their groceries or whatever they bought into their vehicles.

I've seen this happen many times. Assuming they were just lazy, but that can't be the reason, because they have the energy to walk around the store, filling that same cart, so it must just be that they are just rude!

Apparently, they don't stop to realize that by doing this, it blocks parking spaces for others or that those carts have wheels and can roll into other parked cars, causing scratches or dents.

I guess my point is, that common courtesy goes a long way, even though society is "high-speed" nowadays.

Please take those few extra seconds to show the same respect to others that you would like shown to you.

Trash shouldn't be put out until the day before pick up

To the editor:

What has happened to the rule of don't put trash by the road till the day before pick up no earlier than noon?

As I drive the streets on the south side behind the Burger King area, I noticed one house always has their trash out on Saturdays.

It's not just a few bags but a large mound of it by the road. Most of the time there are animals already going through it. It looks awful.

How about a little pride in the way the city looks. We have to keep our yards clean and mowed, why can't they keep their trash away from the road till Sunday afternoon?

By Crawford County Sheriff Kirk Wakefield Designate a driver

As family and friends reunite this holiday season, the Michigan Sheriff's Association and Sheriff Wakefield want you to know if you drive drunk you will be arrested and prosecuted. Crawford County Deputies will be out in full force to prevent impaired driving. If you are arrested the cost of your defense and potential fines can be thousands of dollars and you could lose your driving privileges forever.

The winter holidays are among the deadliest times of the year due to increased incidences of impaired driving. Many people simply do not realize the consequences of driving after drinking. The statistics are alarming, 297 people were killed in 2008 in alcohol related crashes in Michigan.

If you are impaired, Sheriff Wakefield encourages you to either take a cab home, have a sober designated driver take you home or stay the night where you are.

"Drunk driving has a devastating effect on our community," said Sheriff Wakefield. "My deputies will make every effort to keep the roads in Crawford County safe by arresting those irresponsible individuals that make the decision to drive after drinking."

Sheriff Wakefield's final advice to those who wish to ring in the new year by consuming alcohol to "Designate a driver that will stay sober."

Construction carries over to the New Year

along with other interior work.

The contract with Ripke Construction calls for $1,200 per day to be paid to the county for every day construction is past the deadline. Compo said the county and its engineers would break construction down into two phases. First, the contractors will be allowed to get all interior work done and the new elevator operational. Then, Ripke Construction is expected to return in the spring to finish up landscaping work, stucco work and the installation of an irrigation system.

"We're focused on getting everything done to get occupancy," Compo said.

Compo added that contractors would face paying the county if work in the spring is not completed in the determined time frame. "At that point in time, if things are not done, the clock will start ticking," he said.

County Commissioner Mike Lange said the project remains on budget.

"The main thing is to keep the project moving forward," Lange said. "I don't think we have any more surprises coming our way."

The courthouse project will make the building compliant with the Americans With Disabilities Act. The project included installing an elevator to allow people to access the basement floor of the building, creating handicapped accessible bathrooms and altering doorways and counters to better serve the handicapped. The county issued $1.5 million in bond, which will be paid off over the next 20 years, to pay for the addition and renovation.

Ripke Construction is currently working on over $2 million in projects at Camp Grayling to renovate a barracks, build a classroom and build a gaming room at a troop training site where soldiers will learn how to detect improvised explosive devices.

County receives housing grant

leverage the funds to get the second pot of money for housing rehabilitation and repairs.

Wakeley said piggy backing the grant applications onto one another has never been done before in Grayling. He added that funds would make affordable loans available to property owners who live in that area of the community.

"We were just thrilled to get the grant and that's all extra money," Wakeley said. "That's a lot of money to bring to a small area and we're going to see a lot of impact from that."

The Crawford County Housing Commission had to pledge $182,500 in Property Improvement Program funds, Rural Development funds and Housing and Urban Development to access the grant.

"Those are leverage funds we use on a day to day basis for housing repairs and rehabilitation," Wakeley said.

Thayer said the housing grant compliments what city officials have been trying to do the last three years.

"This goes hand-in-hand with how we're trying to get people to help beautify the city and clean up their properties so we can maintain property values," Thayer said.

Community comes together for Toys for Tots

The Toys for Tots campaign for Crawford County and surrounding counties had another successful year. Linda Northrop, the Toys for Tots Coordinator for Crawford County and Otsego County, said the Meijer Store in Gaylord donated $7,000 in toys for children in Crawford and Otsego Counties. A Toy-A-Thon was also held at an Aaron Tippin holiday concert at Kirtland Community College. Hundreds of toys were collected and Tippin's crew assembled two bikes that will be given to youngsters in Roscommon and Crawford Counties. Above, Northrop is pictured with Barb Chew, the customer service representative manager at Glen's Markets in Grayling, which raised $960 for Toys for Tots by selling the paper toy trains which were displayed in the store. Northrop said that all toys and donations collected stay in the county to benefit the children. "It all stays local, but it has to funnel back through the Toys for Tots Foundation because of the IRS," Northrop said. "It's great that a small town like ours can come together and do so much to help the children have a Christmas."

The Bible Speaks

Jews Are Also Sinners

Our text last week in Romans 10:18 reminded us that all are sinners because they have received and rejected some form of God's revealed word. "18But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world." Both Jews and Gentiles are sinners because we share a common descent from Adam who was a sinner. This is proven because all die. "22For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." We inherited both Adam's sin and sin nature. "12Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." (Rom. 5:12).

Both Jews and Gentiles have rejected God's revealed word in creation. We saw this last week in Romans 1:18-20. This same truth was given to the Jews in Psalm 19. We see in verse 1 that God's scope of natural revelation was unlimited in space: "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork." Psalm 33:6 reminds us, "6By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth." Jeremiah 10:12 reminds us God created everything by His power, His plan, and for His purpose: "12He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion." Only a fool can see God's creation and then say there is no God. (Psalm 14:1; 53:1).

Second, God's scope of natural revelation was unlimited in time: "Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge." Genesis 1:17,18 teaches us: "17And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, 18And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good."

Third, God's scope of natural revelation was unlimited in language: "3[There is] no speech nor language, [where] their voice is not heard." "16The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun." (Psalm 74:16).

God illustrates natural revelation by describing the sun. The perception of the sun brings witness to all humans. "Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun." This was God's plan in Genesis 1:14,15. Jesus was prophesied to the Jews as their sun in Malachi 4:2: "2But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; Jesus claimed this title in John 8:12: "12Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." We see not only the perception, but the power of the sun in verse 5: "Which [is] as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, [and] rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race." Jesus said in Matthew 28:18: "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth." In verse 6 we see the penetration of the sun: "His going forth [is] from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof." Only fools see the sun of God, yet refuse to believe on the Son of God. Pastor "B"

County attempting to land regional MSU Extension office

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

A conference center, before and after school 4-H programming and a state-side research center - Crawford County officials have yet more plans for the former Grayling Fish Hatchery building.

For the last two months, Crawford County Commissioner Shelley Pinkelman has been working with Michigan State University Extension officials in hopes of bringing a regional extension office to Grayling.

The Michigan State University Extension is in the midst of a restructuring plan in light of state budget cuts. The extension is focused on 21st Century green initiatives to help Michigan move forward. Some of the initial goals are:

- Supporting urban farming that builds regional food systems.
- Fostering innovation that positions agriculture to succeed in the new economy.

• Enhancing community practices for energy efficiency and use of renewable energy.

• Providing expertise to restructured state and local agencies.

• Urban revitalization for stronger businesses and communities.

• Facilitating inter-jurisdictional cooperation for regional prosperity.

As the Michigan State University moves forward with its restructuring plan, it is looking at having regional offices to cut down on operating costs.

Pinkelman believes the former fish hatchery building would be perfect fit. The building could house a conference center, and extension officials could oversee the rental of the facility.

"Someone is always looking to rent a facility and they always end up going to Gaylord because we don't have something that's big enough," Pinkelman said.

The regional office would allow Michigan State University Extension to do product research, agriculture research and a statewide and multi-state research center.

Pinkelman said 4-H programming could be offered to students in conjunction with the nearby Grayling Elementary and AuSable Primary Schools.

Since the county has already been working on relocating the District Health Department #10 office to the main level of the building, Pinkelman said having the extension and health department under one roof would allow for more nutritional and education outreach in the community.

"It would be supporting health and nutrition, not only for children, but also for seniors because they work in-hand with the health department and the senior center," Pinkelman said.

Pinkelman said the lower level of the building would only need new ceilings, walls, electricity and plumbing upgrades. She said partitions could be used to create office space.

"We're not asking for a lot," she said.

County Commissioner Mike Lange said that Linda VanGills, chief health officer for District Health Department #10, has reviewed and approved plans to use the upper level of the building. Cost estimates are expected to be received from Gaylord architect Brad Butcher next month.

"This might segue into what you guys are trying to do downstairs," Lange said.

In August, Crawford County voters turned down a plan to relocate the Grayling Senior Center to the fish hatchery building by a 716 no to 629 yes vote.

Conservationist Calvin "Rusty" Gates dies

Celebrated conservationist and fly-fisherman Calvin "Rusty" Gates Jr. died on December 19, 2009 at his home on the banks of the AuSable River in Grayling, Michigan after a lengthy battle with lung cancer. He was 54 years old.

Gates served as president of the Anglers of the AuSable from its inception in 1987 until 2009. During this time he and his organization won several landmark legal cases in coldwater conservation.

"Rusty was a true treasure," said Rebecca Humphries, Director of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. "He loved the Holy Waters of the AuSable and shared that love with countless individuals. He taught us that it is our duty to respect the resource and to protect it. His love of the river lives on in all of us. I have been truly blessed to know Rusty."

Gates was the proprietor of Gates Au Sable Lodge, and an iconic fly-fishing personality. Rusty's father Cal Gates Sr. moved his family to Grayling in 1970 and, along with his wife Mary, purchased the lodge on the banks of the Au Sable River. Cal Sr. had taught high school music, and Rusty played trombone in high school. But soon his passion for fly-fishing occupied most of his time. He began tying flies professionally at the age of 17, as well as guiding. At first Gates' flies were sold in the corner of the restaurant at the lodge, but soon demand was great enough that the Gates family added a full-service fly-shop to the lodge. Eventually Rusty bought the lodge and operated it with his wife Julie, who ran the restaurant.

"Of all the strong conservationists in our world, Rusty was one of the toughest. He was tireless, and he was like a missile in his precision and deadly accuracy. Yet he never, ever, wanted credit for anything—just for the various groups he worked with, especially the Anglers of the Au Sable," said Tom Rosenbauer, winner of the 2001 National Outdoor Book Award, and Marketing Director for the Orvis Company.

Gates Lodge is a place where thousands of anglers gather annually during fly fishing season from April through autumn. Rusty and Julie could be found there at all hours, tending to the smallest details of fly tying and gourmet cooking. With classical music playing in the background, the fly shop buzzed with patrons' latest stories from the nearby woods and waters. Coffee flowed freely as anglers bent over the dozens of boxes of flies, hoping to pick correctly for the day ahead. Rusty Gates presided over the daily scene with eagle eyes, a wry grin, and measured words. Fishing tips from this master were earned, not purchased. This tradition, while changed forever by Rusty's passing, will continue in 2010 as Gates Lodge remains in business under the leadership of fly shop manager Josh Greenberg, who has worked for Rusty for the last 15 years.

"Rusty proved that people don't fill their gas tank to fill their fry pan. They put on their waders to nourish their soul. Rusty did that for all of us, and our great-great-grandkids. Sure, they won't know it, but when one of them flips an Adams, or a Trico, over a rising brown in 2109 it will have Rusty's name etched on it," said Glen Sheppard, author/editor of the conservation newspaper The North Woods Call.

The quiet, unassuming Gates' soon gained recognition for his expertise in fly-fishing, as well as his honesty and willingness to defend the resource. He developed a number of fly-patterns that became standard AuSable fly patterns, introduced scores of people to the world of fly-fishing, and began to combine angling and conservation in such a way as to involve himself in some of the most influential coldwater issues in Michigan. In 1995 he was awarded the coveted Fly Rod and Reel Magazine "Angler of the Year" award for his conservation and cultural contributions to the sport of fly-fishing.

"Rusty Gates was a brave, smart, tireless champion of wild trout and the beautiful, magic places they abide. He lead by example; and he has touched and inspired us all," said Ted Williams, noted Conservation Editor for Fly Rod and Reel.

In a legal case that would define his commitment to the Au Sable River, in 2003 Gates, as President of the Anglers of the Au Sable, challenged a US Forest Service lease that would allow exploratory drilling for gas below the famed Mason Tract section of the South Branch of the AuSable. With the odds stacked against them, the Anglers prevailed in their case against the Forest Service, forever altering how the business of gas and oil exploration would be conducted in the fragile areas of Michigan.

"While Rusty will mainly be remembered for his role in protecting the Au Sable, he changed forever the way we look at and work to protect our water resources and wildlife. We owe it to Rusty to carry on his work and make sure children in every generation to come will be able to share the wonder and joy in Michigan's wild places that are his legacy," said Michigan Sierra Club President Anne Woiwode.

Calvin "Rusty" Gates, Jr. will be missed by the many who knew him. He was an intensely private man who could, when needed, organize hundreds of people around a cause. Considered by many as one of the most talented fund-raisers and recruiters they'd ever met, Rusty will be remembered for his uninhibited love for the river and the river valley, and his steadfastness in doing what he and many others considered right and necessary for the resource. He is survived by his wife Julie, their children, and a large extended family.

In Memory of

In memory of our Momma, Ann Marie Phillips, December 24, 1998.

I'm Free. Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy of a friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. And yet these things I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, he set me free.

Free from pain, loved and missed dearly.

Your girls and all
XOXO

Wrestling team wins league matches vs. Ramblers, Rayders Vikings post 10-2 record in contested bouts

by Caleb Casey
Senior Staff Writer

Grayling High School's varsity wrestling team defeated two Lake Michigan Conference foes – the Boyne City Ramblers and the Charlevoix Rayders – by large margins in a three-team league meet held last Wednesday at GHS.

In the first series of the night, Charlevoix outscored Boyne City 42-15.

The Vikings battled the Rayders in the second match of the meet.

Carey Brodak (112), Cody Elmy (119), and Joe White (125) won by default for GHS. Olivia Peters (130) won a 4-3 decision. Jacob Ervin (135) pinned his Charlevoix opponent in the first round. Dan Duvall (140) won by default.

Brandon Handrich (145) scored a first round pin. Josh Handrich won by default. Grayling led 45-0.

Charlevoix won the 160-pound weight class with a second round pin.

Derek Babbitt (171) won by default.

The Rayders won at 189

with a third round pin.

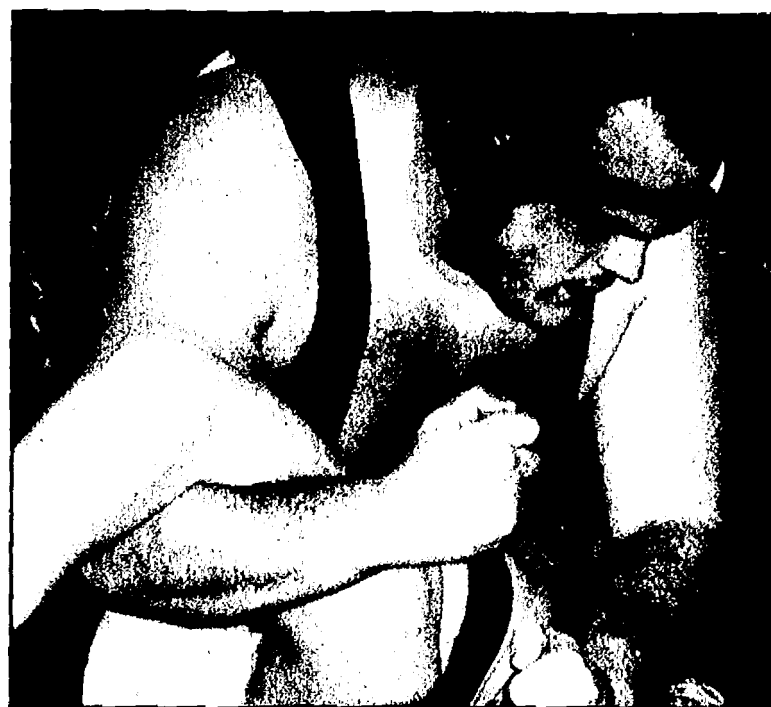

Joe Contreras (215) and Kyle Peters (heavyweight) both pinned their Charlevoix counterparts in the first round. Jerry Bergey (103) won by default.

Grayling won 69-12, posting a 5-2 record in contested matches.

In the final series of the night, Grayling jumped out to a sizeable lead vs. Boyne City and won by 73 points. The match included only five contested bouts and Grayling won all of them.

Elmy (119) pinned his Boyne City opponent in the first round. Ervin (135) scored his second pin of the evening, winning in the second round. Babbitt (189), Contreras (215), and K. Peters (heavyweight) all pinned their Boyne City counterparts in the first round.

White (125), O. Peters (130), Duvall (140), B. Handrich (145), J. Handrich (152), Tyler Sharp (160), Bergey (103), and Brodak (112) all won by default. Grayling gained one additional team point due to a technical violation by Boyne City.

The Vikings forfeited at 171.

Grayling won by a final score of 79-6.

"For a young season it's coming along pretty good," Coach Joe Ferrigan said. "Some of our younger kids are figuring out how to wrestle high school matches."

"I have been thoroughly impressed with Jerry Bergey at 103 and Carey Brodak at 112, both have been doing an outstanding job. Joe White is undefeated (14-0). Kyle Peters is wrestling well."

The Vikings (4-0 league) will wrestle at the Freeland Invitational on Tuesday, Dec. 29.

GMS Boys Basketball

7th grade "white" – The 7th grade boys basketball "white" team recently defeated Kalkaska and Traverse City St. Elizabeth, finishing its 2009 season with an 11-1 record.

On Monday, Grayling won 50-22 at Kalkaska.

"It was one of the best all-around games of the season with great pressure defense and great ball movement to get the ball down court and find the open man," Coach Doug Pummell said.

Scorers for GMS: Danny Schultz (12), Jake Hinkle (10), Carson Burmeister (6), Darin Nicholas (6), Gunner Metzger (5), Ryan Schultz (4), Dallas Johnson (3), Scout Tobin (2), Emmett Helsel (2).

On Wednesday, the team ended its season with a win at Traverse City.

"We played almost the whole first half at our basket but only led 11-9 at halftime because we did not shoot well. When you don't shoot well you better play good defense, and we did," Coach Pummell said.

Scorers for Grayling: Hinkle (9), Metzger (6), Tobin (4), Burmeister (2), Helsel (2), Nicholas (2).

"It was a great season. They are a very unselfish group that shared the basketball. They also played great defense – only twice did opponents score more than 22 points," Coach Pummell said.

"This group carries themselves well. Twice this season middle school athletic directors went out of their way to say how polite and well behaved our players were. It was a great season overall and this group will represent Grayling well in the future," Coach Pummell said.

Vikings win with strong 2nd half at East Jordan

Varsity boys basketball squad starts year at 2-0

by Caleb Casey
Senior Staff Writer

The first half of last Friday's Grayling vs. East Jordan varsity boys basketball game looked like a battle between two similar, evenly matched teams. The Vikings, however, controlled the second half, outscoring the Red Devils 42-22 in the final 16 minutes of the contest.

Friday's match, played at East Jordan High School, was the first Lake Michigan Conference game of the season for both squads.

The teams were tied at 24-24 after a low-scoring first half.

"We started out of the gates pretty slow," Coach Rich Moffit said. "We struggled offensively in our transition break in the fact that our spacing and decision making was not very good. We shot 31 percent in the first half from the floor and shot 5 for 12 from the free-throw line. We made some adjustments at halftime and our players did an outstanding job of playing through adversity."

The Vikings outscored the Red Devils by 20 points - 10 in each period - in the second half to win by a final score of 66-46. Grayling's fourth quarter scoring effort included (in order) two free throws by Colin Hamlin, a three-pointer by Steven Enos, a three-point shot by Zane Tobin, a put-back by Griffin Dean, a three-point play by Jensen Aubry, a jump shot by Hamlin, a three-pointer by Hamlin, and an inside shot by Dean.

"In the second half our offensive decision making was outstanding and our kids scored 42 points. Steven Enos, Colin Hamlin, and Griffin Dean were outstanding in the second half. Jensen Aubry had an outstanding all-around game with his defensive effort and solid play in the paint. Zane Tobin responded in the second half and made some key shots," Coach Moffit said. "Ethan Lewis, Riley Zigila, and David Bergan did a nice job of coming off the bench and providing us with some energy. Zigila and Bergan did a nice job of putting pressure on East Jordan's best player."

Hamlin finished with 17 points and seven assists. Enos had 17 points (4 for 5 from three-point range), seven steals, and five assists. Tobin scored 10 points. Aubry and Dean combined for 15 points and 16 rebounds (eight each).

"I like the attitude and demeanor of this group. For a young group they exhibited composure. The big thing for us is to continue to improve," Coach Moffit said.

Friday night's league basketball night also included Grayling vs. East Jordan in a varsity girls basketball match. The Red Devils won 72-46.

Grayling got into a big hole early, trailing East Jordan 16-0 to start the game.

"We only scored two points in the first quarter compared to scoring 22 in the fourth quarter. We need to stay consistent for all four quarters instead of trying to catch up late in the game,"

Coach Kelly Sheehan said. "Eight girls scored, which is nice to see us able to score without relying on one or two players."

Scorers for GHS included: Abbey Thomas, 10 points, 9 rebounds; Mackenzie Harwood, 9 points; Ann Hamlin, 9 points, 5 rebounds; Katlyn Myles, 7 points; Teresa Schreiber, 5 points; Ashley Feldhauser, 2 points, 8 rebounds; Kristen Todoroff, 2 points; Jo Hamlin, 2 points.

Grayling's boys (2-0 overall, 1-0 league) and girls (1-3 overall, 0-1 league) basketball squads will play at Houghton Lake on Tuesday, Jan. 5.

JV girls win vs. Red Devils

Boys unable to overcome turnovers, lack of scoring in loss

The GHS junior varsity girls basketball squad won its third consecutive game last Thursday, defeating the visiting East Jordan Red Devils 45-36.

The Vikings led 25-17 at halftime and maintained a steady lead throughout the third and fourth periods.

"Girls again played with a lot of heart and effort against a much bigger team," Coach Craig Hofman said. "Rebounding was a key and they all showed up and played a positive role. We had some really positive bench play from Myrissa Kuhn and Madi Junttila. They both filled in at times and did a great job on the defensive end of the floor."

"Offensively we were solid. We had a strong second quarter, outscoring East Jordan 15-10. We dominated the third quarter 12-5. The only downside was the fourth quarter, where East Jordan outscored us 14-8. Our goal is to always win all four quarters, which guarantees a win," Coach Hofman said.

"All of the girls did an excellent job against the full-court and half-court trapping defense. We had very few turnovers," Coach Hofman said.

Caitlin Prosser posted a double-double for GHS with 11 points and 10 rebounds. Jamie Denton had 11 points, nine rebounds, and four steals. Hannah Haven scored 10 points and Chloe Harwood had six points. Samantha Hansen, Myrissa Kuhn, Alyssa Morley, and Junttila also scored points for the Vikings.

"The girls are playing well. You can coach all you want but in the end they have to perform and do the job and so far that is happening. I really see a difference in the preparedness of the girls early on and that credit goes to our coaches at the middle school level and below," Coach Hofman said.

Grayling (3-1 overall, 1-0 league) will play at Houghton Lake on Monday, Jan. 4.

The Grayling Vikings didn't shoot well in a 51-37 JV boys basketball loss vs. the visiting East Jordan Red Devils last Thursday. Grayling was 13 for 57 from the field (23 percent) and 7 for 17 (41 percent) from the free-throw line.

"We simply struggled to put the ball in the hoop," Coach Chris Kucharek said.

Grayling trailed 21-12 after one quarter and 35-19 at halftime. East Jordan took a 41-28 advantage into the fourth period.

The Vikings had 69 deflections and 23 steals on defense, but Grayling also committed 16 turnovers and had only six assists on offense.

"It's tough to win any game when you score 37 points. Defensively we played well enough to win in the second half but gave up 35 points in the first half," Coach Kucharek said. "I thought the kids battled hard until the end, but we need to clean up our play."

Leading scorers for GHS included: Thomas Burrell, 14 points, 7 rebounds, 5 steals; Devon Dawson, 7 points, 6 rebounds, 7 steals; Tyler Powers, 5 points; Ryan Randall, 5 points; Jeff Enos, 3 points; Josh McBride, 3 points.

Jared Carlisle had six rebounds.

Grayling (1-1 overall, 0-1 league) will play at Houghton Lake on Monday, Jan. 4.

9th grade team wins 65-56 at EJ

The GHS freshman boys basketball team won 65-56 at East Jordan on Friday night. The Red Devils led 30-26 at halftime, but Grayling outscored EJ 39-26 in the final 16 minutes.

"I loved the determination that our guys played with, especially in the second half. East Jordan made a nice run on us to end the first half. We decided to bring the pressure coming out of halftime, which changed the dynamic of the game quite quickly. Our energy on the defensive side of the ball jump started our transition game. The kids never looked back from there and answered every run that East Jordan had for us," Coach LJ Mead said.

Leading scorers for GHS were: Scott Parkinson, 27 points, 7 steals; Mason Krey, 22 points, 6 assists, 3 steals; Wes Dean, 8 points, 6 rebounds; Levi Korneli, 6 points, 10 rebounds; Louis Menard, 2 points, 8 rebounds. Jake Robinson and Blake Hatfield combined for 10 rebounds.

"Jake Robinson, Levi

Korneli, and Louis Menard did a great job cleaning up the glass, while the defensive effort of Mason Krey, Scott Parkinson, and Wes Dean changed the outcome of the game," Coach Mead said.

Grayling (2-0 overall) will play against Houghton Lake on Jan. 4.

23 Years Ago December 25, 1986

Dr. Tom Rosi's residence on Dale Street took first place in the Christmas Home Decorating Contest and the Triangle Motel took first place in the Commercial Decorating Contest. Both contests were sponsored by the Grayling Promotional Association.

Christmas came early this year for Marge Smith of Lake Margrethe. Her name was drawn from among 2,200 names as the recipient of $1,000 worth of shopping from the Grayling

Michelle Moore, Rebecca Jones, Richele Trudeau and Shawn Denton are all members of the GHS girls basketball team who received All-Conference honors for 1986.

Todd Klinger's jump shot, with 3 seconds left in regulation time, tied the boys GHS basketball team at 67-67 against Boyne City. They never trailed in overtime, as they won 74-71.

Twenty-one students from the Grayling High School Spanish Department attended Saginaw Valley State College's 11th Annual Foreign Language Day. GHS students entered three of eight competitions and came back to Grayling with three trophies.

There are also two other rinks in town, one on Madsen St. next to Albert Denewetts on the south side and one the north side of Smith Street, next to Kip Papendicks. These two are also open for skating.

Several fires have been handled by the Grayling Fire Department recently. The first one was on Dec. 14, at one of the Raymond's cabins just east of the fish hatchery. The building was occupied by John Wakeley. The fire was believed to have started with a gas stove. The building was a total loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker have sold their home at 606

Park Street to Mr. and Mrs. Jim LaGrow. The Bakers have moved to Houghton Lake.

Winners of the Christmas decorating contest, sponsored by the City of Grayling, were Mr. and Mrs. Kip Papendick in first place, Mrs. Willard Harwood in second, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClain in third, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mauren in fourth and Dr. and Mrs. B.E. Henig and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hall with an honorable mention. The Papendicks have a Santa who waves, warming his feet at a pot-bellied stove, a tree with gifts under it and a window with deer looking in.
